Course Outline - For Class 12 Completed Students and College-Goers

Course Outline - For Graduates

Note: After completion of your Articleship training, there should be a gap of at least 6 months to be eligible for you to appear for CA Final examinations.

PASSING CRITERIA :

CA FOUNDATION : To pass the CA Foundation examination, which comprises four papers, each carrying a total of 100 marks, candidates must achieve a minimum of 40% marks in each individual paper. Additionally, they need to secure an aggregate of 50% marks across all four papers combined (total marks: 400).

CA INTERMEDIATE : The CA Intermediate examination is divided into two groups, with each group consisting of three papers under the new scheme. Each paper in both Group I and Group II carries a total of 100 marks. To pass either Group I or Group II, a candidate must score at least 40% marks in each paper within that group. Furthermore, the candidate must obtain an overall aggregate of 50% marks in all the papers of that specific group (total marks per group: 300). Clearing both Group I and Group II is necessary to pass the CA Intermediate level.

CA FINAL : Similar to the Intermediate level, the CA Final examination comprises two groups, with each group having three papers under the new scheme. Each paper in both Group I and Group II carries a total of 100 marks. To pass either Group I or Group II, a candidate is required to secure a minimum of 40% marks in each paper within the respective group. Moreover, an aggregate of 50% marks in the total of all papers within that group (total marks per group: 300) must be attained. Passing both Group I and Group II is mandatory for successfully completing the CA Final level.
